Mr. G. G. Jeremiah, E. and A. I.
Association of Mysore and Coorg,

Summary of discussion.—(a) The well sunk in the jodi village of Pattandur at the cost of Government is claimed by the jodidar as his personal property who threatens openly to debar the settlers from using it.

There are no means of communication and the existing cart-tracks are in disrepair. There is no school for the children and no provision made for adverse circumstances.
